Political Endorsements

With the long election cycle finally coming to an end next Tuesday, we felt it was important to give our thoughts on some of the candidates running for office.

Locally, there are only two positions currently up for grabs, including board seats on the Virgin Valley Water District and the Overton Power District.

For the office of County Commission District B, we endorse Tom Collins.

Collins has been the best possible kind of County Commissioner for Mesquite.

He doesn't impose a lot of county interference on the city, but has always been there for us to find help from the county for things like the Hafen Park tennis courts and the baseball lights at Virgin Valley High School that the School District was unwilling to fund.
